

FAIR LAKES COURT

Fairfax, VA

Client: Centex Homes

Fair Lakes Court is a 211 unit townhouse community located on 20 acres in western Fairfax County, VA. BC Consultants was responsible for the original site design, as well as all engineering and landscape design. Notable features of this community include a large centrally located park where existing trees were preserved and blended with additional landscaping to further enhance the site. The community also has various additional outdoor recreational sites and tot lots for the enjoyment of its residents.
